2005 WVIAC FOOTBALL PREVIEW

Defending champion Shepherd University is the pick by West Virginia Conference football coaches to claim the 2005 league football crown. SU received six of eight first place votes to finish atop the coaches' vote.

The Rams will have to buck history and hope to make some history for head coach Monte Cater in their title defense. No pre-season favorite has earned the WVIAC championship since the 1999. Cater, who is entering his 19th season at the Eastern Panhandle campus, needs seven victories this season to tie Fairmont State's Deacon Duvall atop the all-time WVIAC win chart at 125.

West Virginia Wesleyan, the 2002 and 2003 league champions, earned one first place vote and finished second in the poll. Glenville State also was the recipient of a first place vote and placed third.

Fairmont State and Concord each received strong support for upper division finishes and ended fourth and fifth. Charleston, who is eligible for the league crown for the first time since 1954, is sixth. West Virginia State and West Liberty State round out the voting. WVU Tech is not eligible for this season's WVIAC football championship.

Shepherd (7-3, 7-0 in '04) must replace all of their skill position starters on offense. However, the Rams return four starting linemen, including second team All-WVIAC honoree Jim Violand.

The outstanding defensive back combination of Dustin Dudinski and Dan Peters keys what is annually a solid defense. Each were first team All-WVIAC team recipients in 2005 as they tied for the conference lead with six interceptions.

Special teams should also be a plus for Shepherd as Ricky Schmitt rates as one of the region's top players as a kicker and punter. Dudinski provides a threat in the return game.

West Virginia Wesleyan's (6-5, 4-3) veteran head coach Bill Struble has no such worries about his quarterback situation with senior Marc Kimes under center for the Bobcats. Kimes, a first team All-WVIAC pick in each of the past two seasons, established a new school record with 2928 passing yards in 2004.

South Charleston native T.R. Dues is a threat due to his versatility and speed. The junior running back gained 523 yards on the ground last season, while also catching 39 passes, and serving as a top-flight kick returner.

The Bobcat defense struggled at times in 2004, but will return six starters. LB Zack Condo, DE Keith Burgman, and DB Terence Lucas should pace the Wesleyan stop troops.

Glenville State (5-6, 5-2) should have one of the most potent attacks in the Northeast Region. Senior quarterback Joey Conrad is within reach of the career WVIAC passing and total offense records held by former GSC standout Jed Drenning that were once thought to be nearly unbreakable.

Conrad, a two-time All-WVIAC first team selection, has thrown for 8184 yards in his GSC career. Despite losing All-American wide receiver Antonio Carter, the Pioneers still have a deep receiving corps. Junior Tavon McGee snared 57 passes in 2004, while Derrick Patterson made 32 grabs. Senior RB Arthur Bryant (674 yards) helps power the GSC ground game.

Eight defenders are among the 18 returning starters for head coach Alan Fiddler. Sophomore linebacker Jacquez Taylor led all NCAA Division II rookies last season with 117 tackles. LB Dennis Stanton, DL Dana Raban, and DB Kashif Ealey all were second team picks on the 2004 all-league squad.

Fairmont State (5-5, 4-3) will depend heavily on the 1-2 rushing punch of Wendell Johnson and Jo Jo Parker. Johnson paced the league last season with 1240 yards on the ground, while Parker chipped in with 709 yards. All-conference lineman Robert Henning helped pave the way for the FSU rushing heroics.

The Falcons were grounded last season by a passing attack that managed less than 100 yards per outing. Junior college transfer Nate Lewis could provide help at quarterback. Josh Romeo, who battled injuries in 2004, is the top returning pass catcher.

Five starters return from a defense that led the WVIAC in total defense in 2004. Rusty Elliott's crew held foes to 287 yards per contest. SS Josh Skidmore and LB Matt Vance hope to lead another stingy unit in 2005.

Hopes are high at Concord (5-6, 4-3) that the Mountain Lions can be a serious threat in the league race for the first time since the early 1990's. CU posted their first winning mark in conference play since 1993 at 4-3 last season.

Marshall transfer Tank Tunstalle should pair with former high school rival Ben Thornton and Torrance Ruth to beef up the CU ground attack. Junior tight end Ron Buskey, who made a team-high 43 receptions in 2004, has received mention on some pre-season All-American squads..

Terrance Lee topped the WVIAC with a dozen sacks and should pace the Mountain Lion defense. Robert Sabbatini and Daryl Wilson provide senior leadership from their linebacker positions. DB Ola Adams was named to the All-WVIAC second team as a freshman last season.

Tony DeMeo takes over the reins at Charleston (3-7). The former Washburn and Iona head coach will install an option-based Triple Gun offense.

QB Corey Isner threw for nearly 1300 yards last season and triggers the new attack. Blake Burr is the top returning running back after the loss of all-region honoree Chris Moore. End Robert Carrick should be a standout for the UC defense. A deep and talented recruiting class could make an immediate impact for the Golden Eagles.

West Virginia State (3-8, 2-5) looks to continue the momentum generated by season-ending victories over West Liberty State and West Virginia Wesleyan. Carl Lee's Yellow Jackets welcome back five starters on each side of the ball. DB John Bugg is expected to be a standout for WVSU.

Longtime assistant coach Roger Waialae takes over at West Liberty State (2-8, 0-7). Running back Derrick Stickles, who rushed for 594 yards on 122 carries before being lost to injury, should be the catalyst for the Hilltopper offense. WLSC also gets back QB Jay Gullion from an injury-marred 2004 campaign in which he completed nearly 56 percent of his throws.

WVU Tech (2-9, 2-5) will also have a new leader as Bill Briggs assumes the reins in Montgomery after the Golden Bear football program received a reprieve. Wide receivers Chris Lawson and James Boyd provide a foundation for Brigg's spread offense. Senior linebacker Mingo Brown heads up the defense.

Did You Know?

---Only two successful field goals were made during the 1959 grid season. Bluefield State's Jim Scott booted the season's longest three-pointer from a mere 12 yards out! Unbelievably, 1959 was the decade's busiest year for kickers. WVIAC booters only made six field goals during the entire decade in those days before the advent of soccerstyle kickers.

THE NORTHEAST REGION

The West Virginia Conference will compete within the Northeast Region during the 2005 season. The NCAA realigned the regional structure in 2004 as part of increasing the Division II playoff field from 16 to 24 squads.

The newly configured Northeast Region contains the WVIAC, the Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference, and the Northeast-10 Conference. Six playoff spots will be allotted from all four regions across the country (North-east, South, Northwest, and Southwest) into the NCAA Division II Football championship.

2004 introduced "earned access" into the Division II football lexicon. Earned access assures any league with a team in the final regional top ten of a playoff spot. The highest ranked squad in a conference receives earned access regardless of conference standing.

The regional rankings are compiled by the NCAA Division II Football Committee with assistance from the Northeast Region Advisory Committee. Each conference within the region has two members of the RAC.

West Chester was last season's regional champion as the Golden Rams took wins over C.W. Post, Shippensburg, and East Stroudsburg before falling to eventual national champion Valdosta State in the national semifinals. Bentley and Edinboro also made the playoffs out of the Northeast Region.

Shepherd, who was rated 12th, was the lone WVIAC squad to be listed in the final 2004 Northeast Region ranking. The Rams were the last conference squad to appear in the playoffs when they fell 21-14 to Millersville in the 1999 post-season.

PRESIDENT'S & COMMISSIONER'S CUPS

The West Virginia Intercollegiate Athletic Conference annually awards the President's and Commissioner's Cups to recognize all-around athletic excellence among its member schools. West Virginia Wesleyan won four sport championships to earn their fourteenth consecutive Commissioner's Cup award. Shepherd used titles in football and men's tennis to key the school's first President's Cup honor.

The President's Cup is awarded to the school that has the highest average score for sports sponsored within the WVIAC. Points are awarded based on finishes in the regular season of each sport. Scoring of WVIAC sports is a reflection of the number of teams participating for that championship.

The Commissioner's Cup is awarded to the institution with the highest cumulative score as determined by a scoring method used by the league. Points are awarded based on the school's finish after completion of each of the sports sponsored by the WVIAC.

Did You Know?

---The WVIAC was the only NCAA Division II league to place a team in the national football quarterfinals, the men's basketball Elite Eight, and the D-II Baseball World Series during the 1998-99 academic year.
 ---Three current Division I institutions are former league members. West Virginia and Marshall were charter members, while Morehead State was a member from 1929 to 1932. The Eagles were the only non-West Virginia school to be a league member. The Mountaineers departed in 1927 and the Thundering Herd exited in 1949.
 ---Eight members of the current West Virginia University football coaching staff played or coached in the WVIAC.
